

Dataspace, a NOBOUG sponsor, cordially invites you to the next Northern Ohio Business Objects User Group (NOBOUG) on Tuesday, August 14, 2007 at Silvertrain in Independence, Ohio.

Membership is free and open to all Business Objects and Crystal Reports professionals, from end users to technical staff. Network with your peers and gain valuable (some would say Xtreme) insight to get the most from Business Objects products. Please bring business cards to share with peers and enter door prize drawings.

Visit the event web site at <http://www.busobjects.com/usergroup/detail.php?EventID=252> for additional details and to register.

AGENDA

(subject to change without notice)

12:00 - 12:30 PM Registration / Networking Lunch

12:30 - 1:20 PM Let There Be Light
Business Objects XI Release 2 – Productivity Pack

Dan Robertson, Senior Sales Consultant, Business Objects

See what's new in Business Objects XI Release 2 SP2 and the new Productivity Pack. Learn how new innovations like Query as a Web Service, Voyager OLAP, and an updated Live Office can empower your organization's decision making and business performance.

1:20 - 1:30 PM Break

1:30 - 2:20 PM VBA Primer and Sample Code

Bill Croasmun, KePRO

Learn how to use VBA (Visual Basic for Applications) with Business Objects tools like Business Objects full client 6.5 and Desktop Intelligence XI Release 2. Demonstration will include practical examples with sample code that you can try yourself.

2:20 - 2:30 PM Break

2:30 - 3:20 PM Creating Dashboards Using Web Intelligence

Tom Nather, Cleveland Clinic

Do you want to extend information interactivity beyond traditional query and analysis to reach more users more easily? Learn how to make use of simple dashboard techniques so non-technical users—such as operational managers and executives—can access, display, and explore business information to assess how their organization is doing. Taking advantage of simple alerts and report linking, discover how users can navigate from a summary dashboard to detailed reports with just one mouse-click. Also, learn how to develop and incorporate more sophisticated navigation features using a Dashboard Manager frame.

3:20 - 3:30 PM Break

3:30 - 4:20 PM How to Size and Plan a Business Objects XI Migration

John Manwaring, Silvertrain
